2. When the City municipality was entrusted with the duty of collecting excess water charges, a bill for excess consumption was presented to Mr: Campbell, but he asked the Vice-President to address the Govt. for payment. That duty having been subsequently transferred to the Water Supply Deptt: the Executive Engineer addressed Mr: Campbell in October 1912 and asked him to adjust the amounts shown against him. But he refused to pay the bills and asked the Executive Engineer to send them to the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Dn.

To

The Chief Engineer of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith for favor of orders copies of correspondence ending with Water Supply & Stores Division Executive Engineer's No.19 of the 11th. January last, in connection with the excess water consumed at Carlton House, Bangalore by Mr. R.H.Campbell, Private Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

2. As per recent Government Proceedings No.5623-63 Ml.252-12-9 of the 31st. January 1913, only House and the lighting taxes and the Water rate due on the residences occupied rent free, should be paid by the Department whose officers occupy the buildings, but the excess water charges should be paid by the occupier direct as a liability against him.

3. If my interpretation is correct, Mr. Campbell may kindly be requested to pay the excess water charges.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Superintending Engineer of Mysore,

Enc. to No. 2110.

Copy of letter No.19/Enc.2 dated 9th./11th. January 1913, from the Executive Engineer, Water Supply & Stores Division, to the Superintending Engineer, Southern Circle.

I have the honor to report that the marginally noted bills for the excess water consumed at the Carlton House, Bangalore, remain unadjusted. When they were presented to Mr. R.H.Campbell by the Municipality, he returned them with his letter No.44 dated 3-7-1912 stating that he is not liable for the bill and asking the President to address the Government for the payment.

2. The bill for the quarter ending June 1912 was sent from this office to Mr. Campbell with a covering D.O. but he returned the bill stating that he is not going to pay the amount and that it may be sent to the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Division.

3. As per Government Proceedings No.973-9 Ml.347-09-3,dated 27th. July 1910, it is the occupier of the Government buildings that is liable to pay the Excess water charges and not the Government.

4. Under the circumstances I request your orders as to what action I have to take in the matter. Copies of letters received by the Municipal President, and this office from Mr. R.H.Campbell are herewith enclosed for information.

I cannot understand why the enclosed is sent to me.
I have never paid excess water tax for any of my houses and do not propose to begin paying now. You had better sent the bill to the Executive Engineer, Trichur Division and do the same all future bills.
